

ACCELERATED CLIMATE ACTION THROUGH REGIONAL COLLABORATION

2019 Hawai'i Climate Conference
January 14, 2019

Jennifer L. Jurado, Ph.D., Chief Resilience Officer

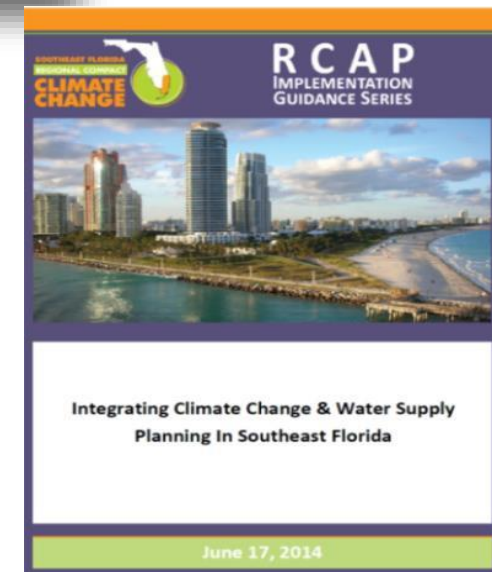

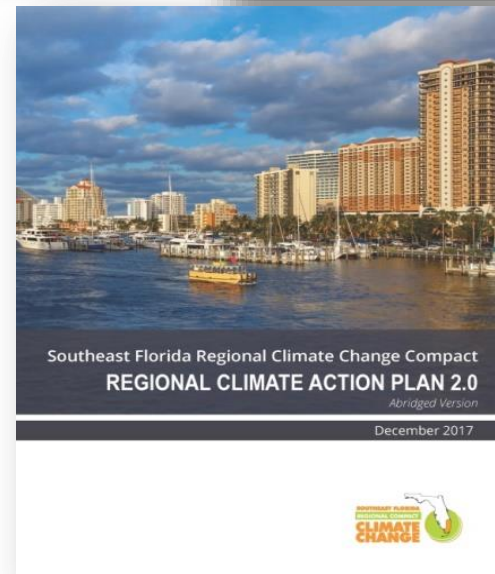

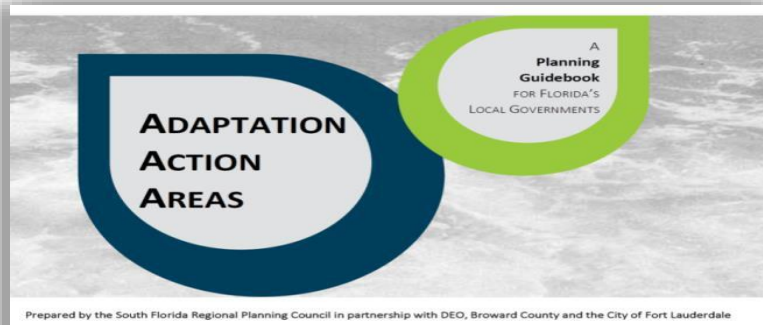

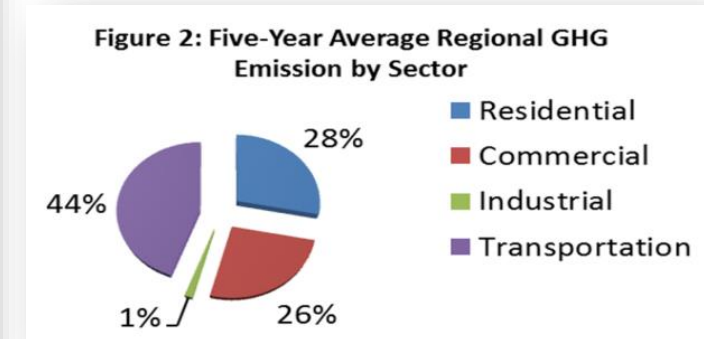

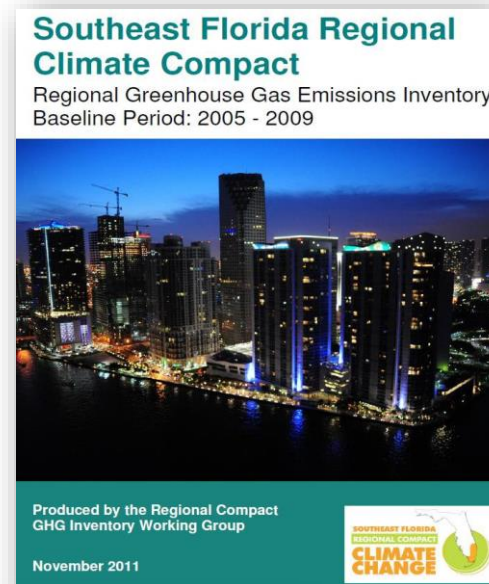

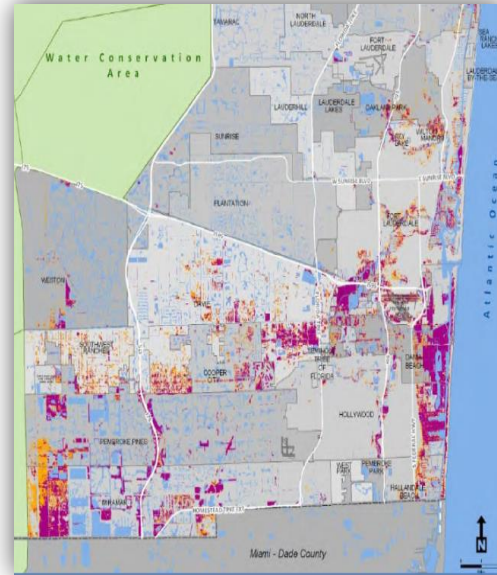

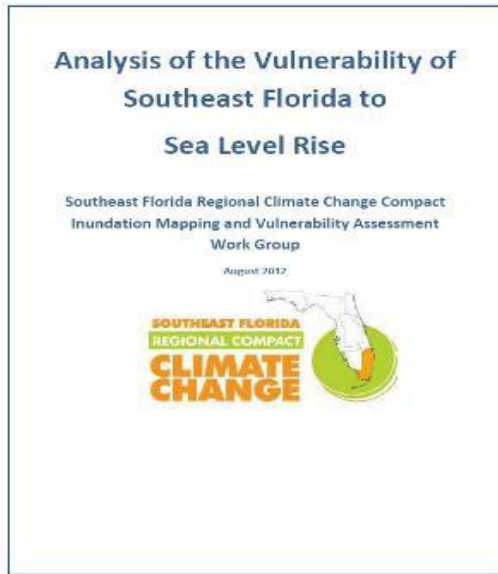

Southeast Florida Regional Climate Change Compact

- ❑ Response to shared challenges
- ❑ 4 Counties/110 Cities
- ❑ 5.9 million residents
- ❑ Commitments
 - Policy coordination
 - Baseline science
 - Regional action plan
 - Coordinated implementation

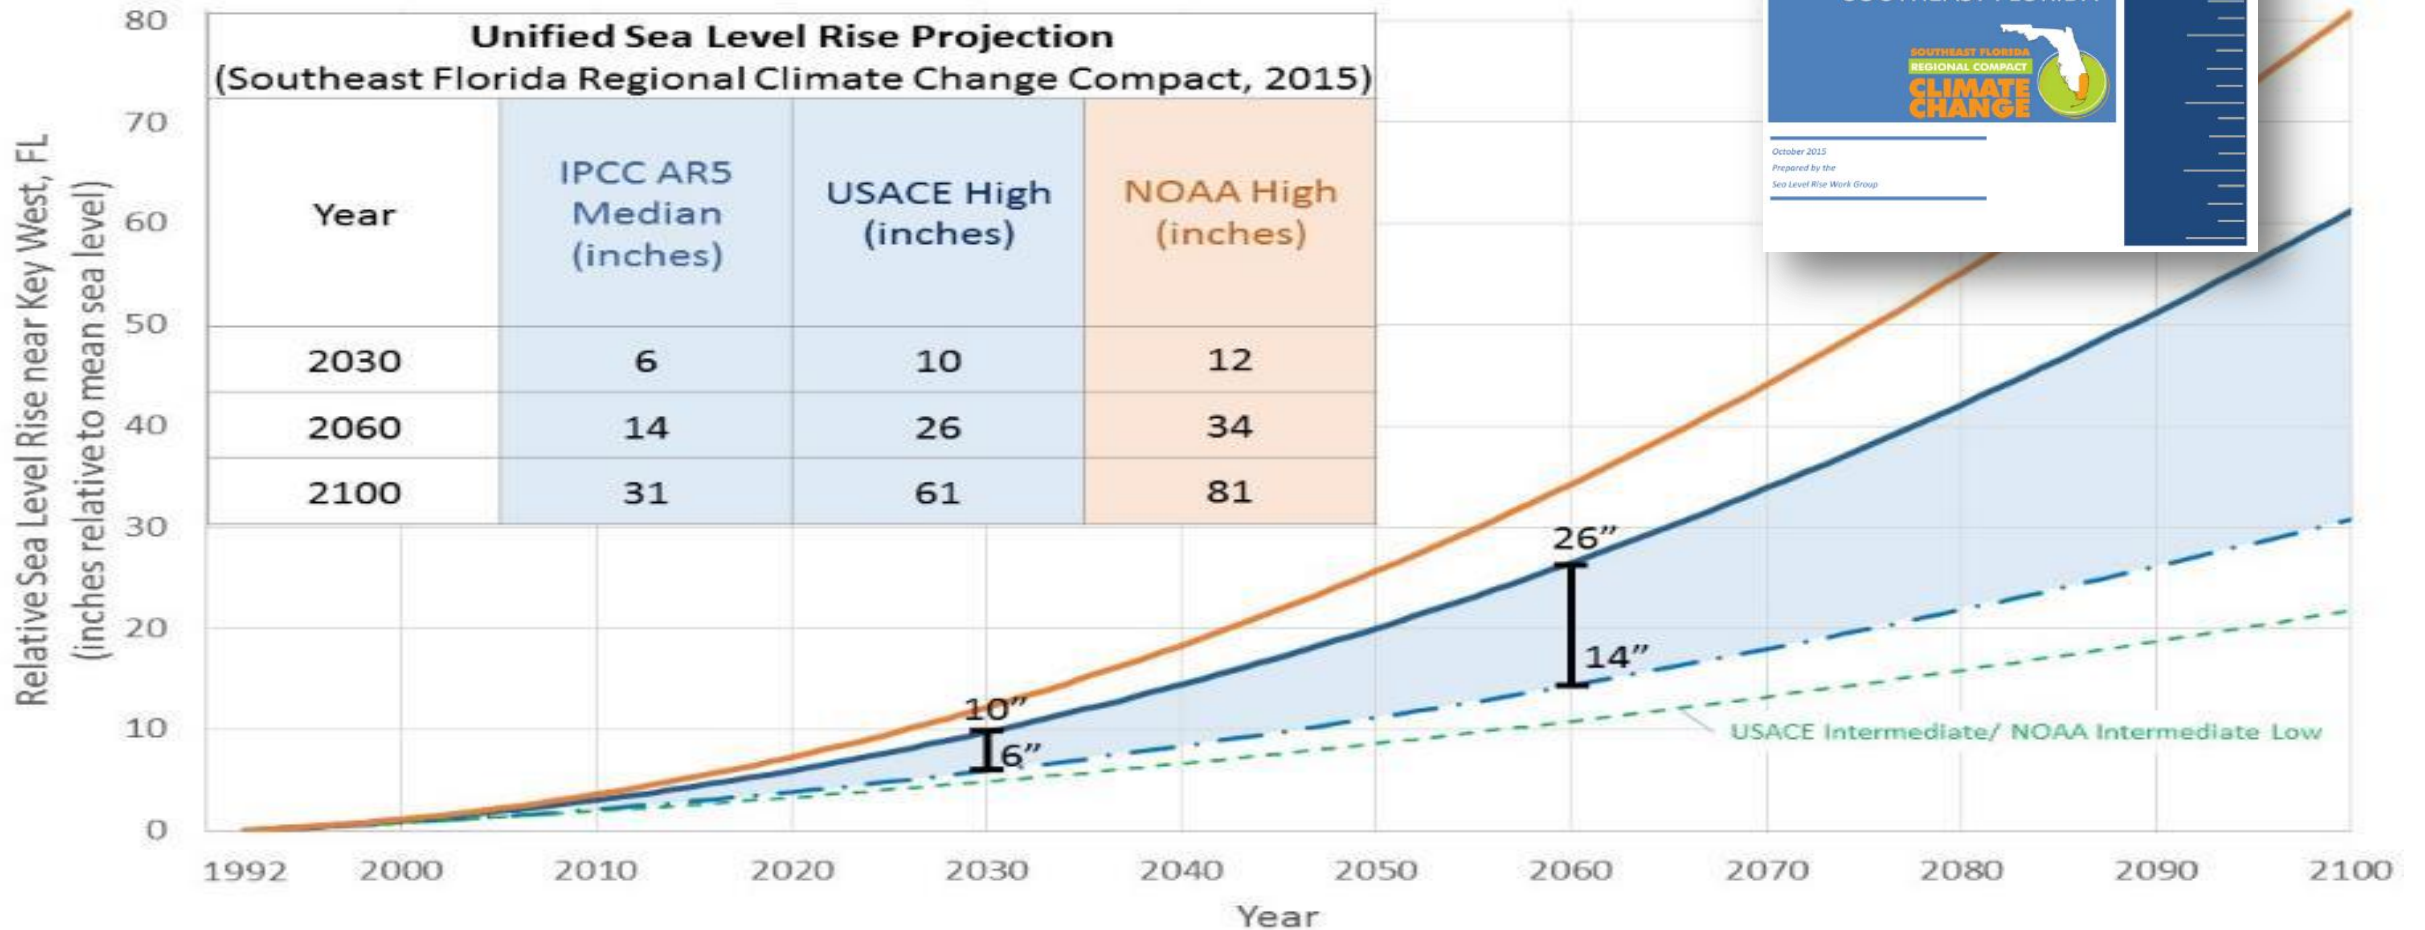

Regional Planning Tools and Products

All documents available at <http://southeastfloridacclimatecompact.org/>

Southeast Florida Sea Level Rise Projection

Regional Capacity Building

Implementation Workshops

- ☐ Sea Level Rise Integration
- ☐ Energy Resilience
- ☐ Energy Efficient Buildings
- ☐ Transportation
- ☐ Stormwater
- ☐ AAA Legislation
- ☐ Water Supply Planning
- ☐ Resilient Redesign
- ☐ Post Disaster Planning

Products

- ☐ Guidance Documents
- ☐ Technical Tools and Assistance
- ☐ Resources
- ☐ Model Policy

Regional Plans to Local Action

□ Land Use

- Priority Planning Areas
- Adaptation Action Areas

□ Resilient shorelines

- Beach dunes – 80% goal
- Living shorelines guidance

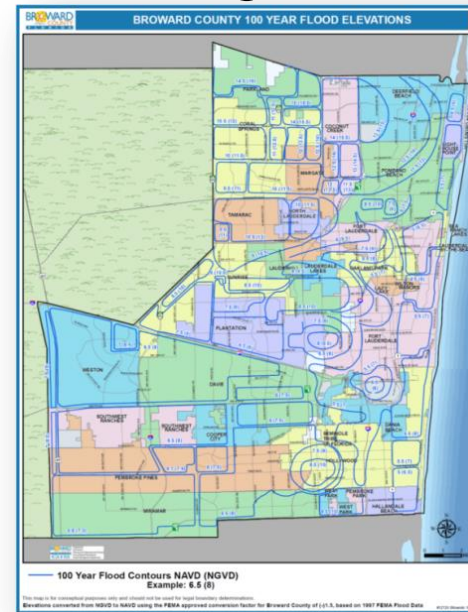

□ Future conditions standards

- Groundwater and drainage
- 100-year flood map
- Seawalls and flood barriers

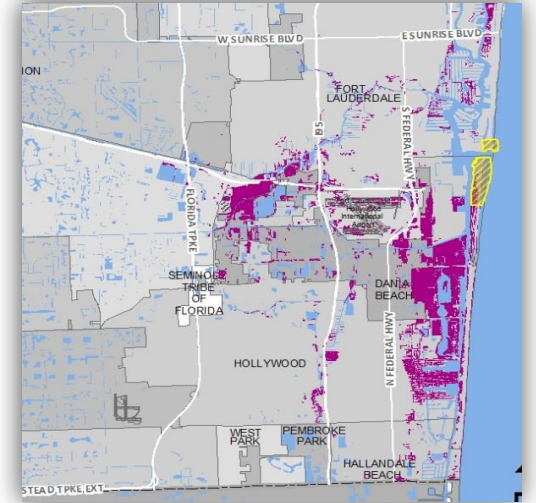

Design Gallery

New Regulations

2-foot SLR

Grant Program

Questions?

Jennifer L. Jurado, Ph.D.
Chief Resilience Officer and Director,
Environmental Planning and Community Resilience Division
jjurado@broward.org

